CAMP PHILOSOPHY

"The Muskingum Roundball Camp is specifically designed to teach the fundamentals of the game of basketball in a fun, safe environment through skill instruction and game opportunities. Each camper will receive the individual attention to learn the skills to become the best basketball player they can become. A typical day consists of teaching stations, shooting instruction, position specific group sessions, 3 on 3 games and 5 on 5 league games. Your daughter will have a great experience working with the Muskingum Basketball Coaching staff and players, learn the game of basketball and make many new friendships along the way. We look forward to working with your daughter this summer at the Muskingum Roundball Basketball Camp."

CAMP DIRECTOR TRAVIS SCHWAB

Schwab arrives at Muskingum after a highly successful eight-year tenure at Wittenberg University. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2013. He helped guide Wittenberg to the 2011-12 regular season North Coast Athletic Conference (NCAC) championship and to three NCAC Tournament championship games.

"I am honored to be named the men's basketball coach at Muskingum University," said Schwab. "Our program will be one that prides itself in our work ethic both in the classroom and on the basketball floor."

Schwab, a 2004 Ohio Wesleyan University graduate, is one of only two players in NCAC history to be selected first-team all-conference four consecutive years during his career in the Ohio Wesleyan program. Following his senior season, Schwab was named to the prestigious National Association of Basketball Coaches All-America Team. Schwab's 1,985 career points rank second on the Ohio Wesleyan career scoring list and third on the NCAC's all-time list.

"We will be a team that our students, our proud alumni and the Village of New Concord can take great pride in," said Schwab.
